Item of Form	Answer
Item 1.D. con't.	The Wealth Integration and Transfer System™ This process takes people through three stages and eight steps, as described below: PHASE ONE: DISCOVERY Step 1 — The Success to Significance Questionnaire™ This exercise allows the client to plan their affairs by listening to their soul first, then integrating the financial data with their goals. They will also complete the Kolbe Profile during this exercise that creates a unique communication tool to help them better understand what motivates them. This will also provide insights on how different family members can use their unique talents to accomplish family goals. When working through this step, they must weigh and balance various issues that are discovered when they complete the questionnaire. The questions are designed to encourage the client to reflect upon these areas: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Personal financial security and flexibility, 2. Diversification of investments, 3. Providing a targeted inheritance, and 4. Capturing and deploying Social Capital dollars, which might otherwise have been lost to taxes, to be directed instead to charitable organizations that match their values and goals. Step 2 — The Family Focus Retreat™ During this one-half to full day meeting, the client clarifies essential items as their responses to the questionnaires are discussed. We explore the spiritual, social, and financial areas in which they would be comfortable. From the retreat, the Family Philosophy of Wealth is produced to share with all involved with the client's estate plan. It will state what they want to accomplish so all areas are properly coordinated. Step 3 — The Family Philosophy of Wealth™ We will help the client draft this strategic document that describes the basis for their virtues and values, as well as why they wish to transfer assets in a particular manner. The majority of fees, which could range between two tenths and four tenths of 1% of the client's net worth, are negotiated depending upon the size and complexity of the Estate. The Family Philosophy of Wealth provides them, their planning team, their heirs, and any others who may benefit from their plan, with a "mission statement" to use as a guide towards implementing a Wealth Integration and Transfer System (WITS) that reflects their virtues and values. Step 4 — The Validation Process™ FIG wants to have as complete an understanding as possible of each client's current financial situation. This process assists FIG to construct the essence of their current estate plan and provide them with an evaluation of the results it would produce and how such results align with their goals as specified from their Family Philosophy of Wealth™.

Item 1.D. con't.	PHASE TWO: VISION Step 5 — The Asset Value Integration™ FIG case design professionals utilize various available tools to construct a plan integrating the client's virtues and values, as well as their spiritual, social and financial goals into a specific strategy. The client's attorney and accountant may participate in this process, along with any other advisor they request. This is the point at which creativity carries beyond traditional planning guidelines. Step 6 — The WITS Report™ Based upon the data supplied by the clients and our understanding of their goals and objectives, we will prepare and present the preliminary WITS Report™. This is a comprehensive Family study that looks at their goals derived from their Family Philosophy of Wealth™, makes suggestions and recommendations, and illustrates how specific strategies will work together to build a plan intended to fulfill their goals. This document provides integrated cash flow schedules & flow charts, detailed information about each strategy, and shows how everything culminates to achieve maximum results. FIG will work with their other advisors to develop a revised WITS Report™ that enhances the elements they like and reduces or eliminates the elements they dislike from the original proposal. The attorney, CPA, or other advisors, will need to provide significant input to tie the entire plan together. FIG becomes the "quarterback" to make sure documentation, evaluations, and other activities are coordinated and time lines are established. Many times the revised WITS Report™ empowers them to increase their personal income, substantially reduce certain income taxes; transfer assets tax-effectively to other family members, and possibly reduce their estate tax to zero. PHASE THREE: EMPOWERMENT™ Step 7 — The Empowerment Process™ Documents are drafted, evaluations are completed, strategies are implemented by various Advisors, and all paperwork is reviewed to be sure everything is properly coordinated with the WITS Report™. Many times assets need to be re-titled and ownership issues coordinated with the proper entities. Ultimately, the clients will be empowered to leave a legacy of significance in their community for many generations to come. Step 8 — Financial Leverage Analysis™ Most times, entities are created or modified that require specific asset matching and asset allocation profiles. FIG will review such things as insurance/annuities portfolios, investment accounts, Limited Liability Company stock, Family Limited Partnerships, retirement accounts, foundation accounts, various trusts and their investments, real estate portfolios, closely held stock, and other entities to be sure they are performing at a level necessary to complete the goals of the WITS Report™. The database created by FIG can be used to run "what if" scenarios or to reflect strategy changes that may occur or be necessary because of changes in the law. This service may be used annually, or on an as-needed basis. II. CONSULTATION A. Seminars FIG provides "Continuing Education Seminars" for other Advisors (Attorney's, CPA's, etc.). A fact-finding technique is discussed, along with how to develop a plan that mixes and matches several strategies into one comprehensive WITS.
